

Your Investment in Lives

The fires of persecution afflict Christians worldwide.

Like the apostles and martyrs of old, modern Christians face the wrath of tyrants and the fury of the godless mob. All across the world, our brothers and sisters are given a simple choice – deny Christ and live, or die clinging to the gospel.

As they give all for Christ, I wonder how many direct their last thoughts towards the wife and children they leave behind. Who will provide for them when their breadwinner is martyred? Who will protect them, who will put food on their table?

That's where Remember comes in. Those widows and orphans are our ministry—and yours, too, if you are a member of the Body of Christ.

Your sponsorship could cause unimaginable blessing.

The doors to blessing for the persecuted church are wide open. Stepping through those doors takes funding and the fervent prayers of saints, and to raise those, we are hosting our second fundraising banquet on October 2.

Remember has made a commitment, though, that all normal contributions go directly to the needs of the persecuted church, and that commitment extends to the banquet. That is why we need you to sponsor this event. Your sponsorship is an investment, a donation that will aid us in bringing in even more than you give—every penny of which will go to the needs of our persecuted brothers and sisters in Christ.

What You Can Do

You can sponsor lifechanging provision.

Remember is committed to donating 100% of contributions to the needs of the persecuted church. Because of this commitment, we will not dedicate any regular donations towards the expenses of this banquet. Your donation to make this banquet possible will bless the lives of persecuted believers for years to come.

Banquet sponsors are the individuals, businesses, or ministries who agree to donate $500 or more, in advance, towards the cost of the evening. As our “thank you,” we will provide our sponsors with recognition of their sacrifice for the persecuted church by listing sponsors in the program, on our website. Of course, we also welcome our sponsors to attend and invite others to the banquet.
